Few Mishaps In Area As Heavy Travel Reported

Several Arrests at Patrol Keeps Busy Over Holiday

Despite the record traffic count over the Labor Day weekend, the Truckee area escaped with only two personal injury highway accidents, neither serious, according to the California Highway Patrol squad here.

In the first accident reported, Billy Owen Young, Del Paso Heights, was treated for minor injuries at the Tahoe Forest Hospital when his car and one driven by Donna Elaine Rohrs, 18, student at the University of Hawaii, collided three miles west of the foot of Donner Grade Friday evening at 5:15 o'clock. Patrolman Roy Stallard made the investigation.

Young was cited for being on the wrong side of the road and for driving without due caution. A third car driven by H. W. Tampke of Reno was involved but was not damaged.

Woman Hurt

Mrs. Katherine Twitchell, 42, of Richmond has a broken ankle and three cars and a truck were wrecked as the result of a spectacular mishap near Kingvale on Sunday afternoon.

State Patrolman William Gautsche said a Garrett Freightlines truck, operated by Joseph R. Berube, 39, San Francisco, apparently broke an air line, preventing the brakes from working. The truck crashed into the rear of the car driven by Joseph Twitchell, 50, Richmond, which was knocked across the highway into the path of a vehicle driven by Gene Austin, 28, Sacramento.

The truck careened into another car driven by Robert Chan, 42, San Francisco, traveling east. This car was knocked backward and down the grade a distance of 33 feet but the driver fortunately escaped serious injury.

The truck was steered off the highway into the rocks and trees before it could be halted.

Thirty-Five Arrests

The patrol reported a total of some 35 citations issued as all available patrolmen were kept busy on the congested highway. There were no arrests for drunken driving—another unusual event for such a busy weekend.

Locally, Constable N. F. Dolley and Deputy Sheriff Roy Waters reported no unusual incidents and the Truckee jail remained empty throughout the holiday period.

Resorts Crowded

Thousands of vacationists thronged to the Truckee, Tahoe and Donner district for the final summer vacation weekend and resorts throughout the area reported overflow crowds.

Youth Conference Being Given Study

Rudy Abrecht, district executive of the Mountain District, YMCA, of Northern California, was here yesterday conferring with school officias relative to a proposed Youth Conference in this community.

Abrecht, a veteran youth organizer, pointed out the advantages of having the conference held in Truckee annually, citing the new high school plant as ideal for the purpose. He said many surrounding communities would be pleased to come here for the sessions.

The executive will be back in Truckee Friday to discuss the matter with the high school student council.

Dr. Hahn Opens Office Here For Medical Practice

Dr. George A. Hahn, who has been here off and on during the past few weeks while awaiting his discharge from the U. S. Air Force, this week will receive his release from the service and will open offices for general medical practice Monday morning.

During his frequent visits here, Dr. Hahn has prepared and equipped his offices in rooms formerly occupied by the late Dr. J. H. Bernard, and now being shared by Dr. Oliver Scow Jr., local dentist. Mrs. Carroll Maynard has been engaged as receptionist for Dr. Hahn.

The doctor is a graduate of the University of Indiana with the class of 1949 and served his internship at the Sacramento County Hospital in California, obtaining a license for general practice in this state two years ago.

After brief civil service practice with the Herlong Ordnance Depot and at Fort Ord, Dr. Hahn entered the Air Force and served 21 months, most of the time in Japan, where he was associated with the FEAMCOM.

Dr. Hahn is not married and currently making his home with Dr. Scow near Donner Lake. During the time he has been in Truckee, the doctor has been working closely with Dr. L. D. Nelson and has frequently assisted in cases at the Tahoe Forest Hospital.

Office hours have been set for 10 to 12 a.m. and from 2 to 4 p.m., with hospital visits and home calls being made in the early morning and evening hours.

Both Dr. Hahn and Dr. Scow are new comers to the community and are receiving a welcome and best wishes. Both are on the hospital staff here.

MRS. GAIENNIE IS NAMED TO HEAD G. O. P. WORKERS

Mrs. Laura D. Gaiennie has accepted the responsibility of precinct captain for the two Truckee election precincts for the Nevada County Republican women's organization, according to Robert Paine, party chairman for the county.

Mrs. Gaiennie has long been a leader in women's club and lodge work in Truckee but, aside from frequent service on election boards, this is her first venture into the field of politics.

"I feel it is high time women fulfilled the promises they made when they were granted universal suffrage," Mrs. Gaiennie said. "Although we outnumber men in the nation, we are outvoted every election.

"As the mother of a war veteran and the grandmother of six future citizens, I feel that for their sake as well as for my own I have a stake in a Republican victory on November 4 — and I'm willing to work toward it. We can win with the united effort of all who feel as I do and I invite the cooperation of anyone willing to give a few minutes, a few hours or several days to bring an end to confusion in the foreign field and to callous corruption at home."

Mrs. Gaiennie and her group will work closely with Mrs. Gladys Pedley of Soda Springs, who has been active as precinct captain on the summit for some time.

Sun Beams

by Walter M. Barrett

The fire at the Stockton Box mill this week again brings to mind a subject which has been kicked around for the past many years without being brought to a decision. We refer to the fact that the boundaries of the Truckee Fire District are too limited. The community has grown by leaps and bounds since the district was organized and as a result there are nearly as many homes and businesses outside the district, and still within the potential fire danger zone, as there are within the district. Facts have been presented which indicate costs of annexing to the fire district would be offset by insurance savings but the more important feature is that the assurance of protection would be given through annexation. Too, it is only fitting and fair that if we expect the services of the department then we should share in its cost. The department responded to a call to the mill and in so doing may have prevented a major conflagration which might easily have included the Truckee business section. We believe, after numerous interviews with property owners adjacent to the district, that they desire to be annexed and we think it is high time that action instead of words be employed to bring about this important project.

* * * *

You have until this time next week to become eligible to vote on November 4. After next Thursday, unless you are properly registered, you cannot vote at the important November election. We know of several people right here in Truckee who spend hours beefing about what they term incompetence, inefficiency and graft in government, who profess sincere interest in the affairs of the country, and who are not registered to vote. If you are one of those, register today and take the only possible method of correcting the situation by voting in November. Don't beef if you don't vote!

GATEWAY STREET NAMED TO HONOR WORLD WAR HERO

Due to the fact that members of the Tahoe Forest Hospital board of directors are on vacation, the regular meeting of the board has been changed from September 12 to September 19, C. R. Heller, president of the board, announced.

Heller also said that work has been completed on many improvements at the hospital and that the streets leading to it from the highway have been readied for winter travel.

Incidentally, Heller said, one of these new streets — the one currently used as the emergency entrance to the hospital — has been appropriately named Lavon Avenue, in memory of the late Lt Lavon Joseph, who lost his life in the Japanese war. His father, R Joseph of Gateway Park, donated the site for the hospital. Later a plaque, indicating this fact, will be installed in the entrance to the hospital.

Queer Varmint Trapped By Young Ray Roberts

Naturalists are puzzled over the appearances of a small animal which Ray Roberts Jr. caught in a little chipmunk trap near the Verdi Peak Lookout recently.

The varmint has the appearance of a chinchilla which may have been crossed with a rat, Mrs. Roberts wrote. It has a very fine, thick fur, with big ears and bulging eyes, a long bushy tail and is brownish-gray in color with a white stomach. It is about the size of a squirrel.

No visitor to the peak has been able to identify the creature, which is being held in captivity temporarily.

ANTIQUE AUTOS TO PARADE HERE AND AT LAKE TAHOE

The weekend of September 5 and 6 will witness the largest turnout of ancient automobiles in western history. Air-cooled Franklins, Pope-Hartfords, Apperson Jackrabbits, Mercer Runabouts—even a 1905 Maxwell Speedster reputed to be a twin of the one owned by Jack Benny—are but a few of the 70-odd entries in the Horseless Carriage Club of Nevada's annual grand tour of the high Sierra.

Proud owners of these antiques on wheels are busy tuning up engines and putting on the last touches of wax and brass polish in garages all over California, Nevada and Oregon, preparatory to taking them to Reno for the big day. Club rules require that they proceed from their home garages to the starting line in front of Harrah's Club in Reno under their own power.

The tour starts officially at 10 a.m. Saturday, September 6, the cars proceeding over Highway 40 to Truckee, then via Highway 89 to Tahoe City and a lunch stop at Homewood Resort. In the afternoon the cars will continue around the lake by way of Emerald Bay and wind up that evening at Stateline.

Sunday morning they will take off again for Carson City where a noonday stop will be made and thence to Virginia City, where there will be another break in the tour for refueling and refreshments.

The 200-mile cruise winds up on Sunday evening in front of the Mapes Hotel in Reno, where awards and prizes will be handed out at a large banquet being given for all the participants by Bill Harrah, fromer president of the Horseless Carriage Club of Nevada.

Deer Season In Area To Open September 20

There are fewer deer in this district this year than for many past seasons and what there are are scattered over a wide area, Game Warden Tom Borneman announced this week.

The hunting season opens in the district Saturday, September 20, and will close October 19.

Borneman, as well as other sportsmen, report a dirth of forked horns this season and blame the heavy winter fo the loss of a great many of the younger bucks. There is no concentration of the animals as in recent seasons and while there will be fair hunting, the kill is not expected to be as great as previously.

Sportsmen report that in areas where the forests have been burned over there are scattered small herds but in many regions where a plentiful supply could be counted on in past years, only a few isolated deer were spotted.

Rules governing the season will be announced by the fish and game department later, Borneman said, but there will be few changes over last year.

Borneman said the fishing season in this district closes October 31 and reports a number of good catches have been made.

Blaze Destroys Cars, Lumber At Local Plant

Volunteers Control Fire Which Threatened Truckee

Fire which originated from a spark from the burner at the Stockton Box Company's sawmill yesterday afternoon caused between $50,000 and $60,000 damage before it was brought under control through the efforts of the Truckee Volunteer Fire Department, the U. S. Forest Service, Southern Pacific crews and equipment and scores of volunteers.

The fire started under the west end of the large loading dock and spread to five boxcars on the railroad siding, two of which were loaded with 40,000 feet of dried lumber. Four of the cars and contents were destroyed completely, and a portion of the slag chain was burned.

At the start of the fire, the mill and yard crews brought out the company's fire equipment but two lengths of hose burst when the water was turned on and this gave the fire a chance to spread.

Southern Pacific locomotives were rushed to the scene and pulled the blazing cars away from the huge piles of lumber and the adjacent mill. The fire department, under the direction of Chief N. F. Dolley, was called and after an hour's constant work with water being plied from the locomotives, fire trucks and buckets, and volunteers beating out small spot fires, fanned by a strong westerly wind, the flames were brought under control.

Forest Service fire fighters were directed by District Ranger E. E. (Pike) Boehm and Nelson Stone, the fire control assistant.

The mill is located less than a mile west of Truckee which was right in the path of the fire and the smoke billowing onto the main street led to some apprehension and no little danger. No doubt the efforts of the fire department and forest service prevented a more disastrous conflagration.

The mill is owned by George Kaspian of Truckee but is under a long-term lease to Stockton Box.

The affair is sponsored by Lake Tahoe Lodge No. 707 of Bijou.

Local members are also reminded that the third degree will be conferred by Truckee Lodge No. 200 at a meeting tonight at 8:00 o'clock and a good turnout is anticipated.

NEW AMBULANCE FOR LOCAL USE

A modern new ambulance, featuring all the latest conveniences, was purchased this week by N. F. Dolley of the Truckee Ambulance.

The new light green vehicle, with a ton and a half Chevrolet motor, will replace the less modern Cadillac and, Dolley said, will provide even better service than before.

For one thing, Dolley pointed out, the new ambulance is more spacious and has facilities for hauling three patients in comfort at one time. It is equipped with the usual oxygen tanks, first aid equipment and comfortable cots. Heating and cooling facilities are provided in the plastic-lined interior.

FLYING SAUCERS SPOTTED IN SIERRA VALLEY

On August 26, 1952, at 11 a.m. Kelso Dellera, who resides in Sierraville and is a foreman for the Forest Service, saw four or five "flying saucers." Dellera was removing logs from a road near Yuba Pass when he looked up into the sky and saw these four or five shiny, greenish-blue, swift-moving objects.

When he saw them they appeared to be very high over Antelope Valley on the south side of Sierra Valley. They were heading northeasterly at a tremendous speed, said Dellera. They disappeared out of sight in less than a minute.

They were travelling in an up and down, half circular pattern. They were not in formation. Some were going up while some were going down. When they started to go up they appeared to momentarily pause.

Dellera tried to call the flying saucers to the attention of one of his fellow workers who was only a short distance away but before he could do so, the objects were beyond sight.

MISSING YOUTH RETURNS TO CEDARS COLONY

SODA SPRINGS— John I. Witter Jr., 19, member of a San Francisco investment brokerage family, returned unaided and uninjured to his parents' cabin at The Cedars Lodge near here, just as an organized search for him was getting started.

Mrs. Roy Thompson, wife of the caretaker at the lodge in the canyon, reported fears were felt North Fork of the American River for young Witter's safety when he failed to return from a hike to French Meadows Monday night.

"He used his head and made camp when he realized he did not have time to return before dark," Mrs. Thompson said. "He arrived back just as searchehs were ready to leave (Tuesday). He was met on the trail about three miles out above Chickerings by Kenneth Noack, who walked back with him. He was dressed warmly, had matches and made a campfire."

Mrs. Thompson said earlier reports that Witter suffered an injury to his ankle and was brought in by a searcher on horseback were erroneous.

The youth's father is a brother of Dean Witter, head of the investment firm of Dean Witter and Company.

THOUSANDS OF ACRES CHARRED DURING LABOR DAY WEEKEND

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— More than 1500 men and 120 bulldozers have been thrown into the battle against Labor Day weekend grass and forest fires, Walter D. Winters, fire control chief for the state division of forestry, reported Tuesday.

So far the fires had burned over 10,000 acres of northern California, Winters said. There were, at the time of the report day before yesterday, thirty major blazes raging, all man-instigated, most of which were under control.

The fire control official pointed out that extremely dry weather has increased the fire threat.

The biggest fire enveloped 2,710 acres of Calaveras County near Altaville.

Humboldt County surfered a 900 acre slash timber fire 16 miles south of Eureka, an 800 acre brush fire three miles south of Garberville, and a 900 acre brush and timber fire near Iqua Buttes. All three fires are being controlled, Winters said.

Mendocino County had about 1400 acres of grass, brush and woodland burning, with fires all about under control.

CARRIAGELESS HORSE WILL WELCOME HORSELESS CARRIAGE

TAHOE CITY— Members of the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Chamber of Commerce are planning to welcome the Horseless Carriage Club of Reno, which will visit the lake, 68 ancient autos strong, on Saturday, September 6. Time of arrival —via Truckee, Highways 40 and 89 —at Tahoe City has been estimated at between 11:30 and noon, with around 175 persons expected in the party.

The cars will parade along the main street, around the big tree in the center and then park for a bit of refreshments. The "City of Tahoe" will turn out to welcome them and several kegs of cold draught beer and pretzels will be served the visitors. A touch of bygone days will be created by mustached bartenders and pretty girls in Gay 90's costumes to serve the pretzels, and a bit of old fashioned barber shop quarteting on the side for entertainment. Everyone around the lake is welcome to join in the fun and help entertain the visitors.

A bit of horseplay will be provided by Leroy, Tahoe City's own carriageless horse, who will be on hand to welcome the horseless carriages.

The group will proceed along Tahoe's west shore to Homewood Hotel, where they will be served luncheon, and then spend the night on the south end of the lake in the vicinity of Stateline. They return to Reno the following day.

NEWSPAPER ADS BACKBONE OF MARKET SUCCESS

The force of modern-day advertising when coupled with the American consumer's regard for quality of product are keys to marketing success.

This is the finding of Karl Schuster, president of Acme Breweries of San Francisco, following study of a 60-day mraketing venture in which the San Diego area had been selected for introduction of a new product.

Credit for an unprecedented increase of 120 per cent in Acme sales in the San Diego area during the two-month period following introduction of Acme's new Bulldog Beer was given by Schuster to newspapers and other advertising media.

"Quality of product and marketing know-how are essentials for industrial success," Schuster observed. "However, without the force of modern-day advertising the grattifying consumer response to the introduction of our new product would not have been realied," he emphasized.

"There are remarkable new advertising media, all of which we use, but we look to newspapers just as Acme has done for the past ninety years as the primary avenue for effectively reaching consumers," Schuster said.

Schuster said that adding Bulldog Beer to his company's line of products was another step in Acme's program of keeping pace with the development of California and its constantly expanding markets. He made known that the company had rejected offers by eastern breweries to purchase Acme's plants and other facilities in northern and southern California.

Ptarmigan Sticks Close To Far North Habitat

Eskimos have to keep a sharp lookout when they are hunting willow ptarmigan, for the big birds are clever at concealing themselves. When snow covers the ground, they're mostly white, with just a little black on their tails. After the spring thaws, they turn partly brown to match the summer landscape.

Splotches of brown, mixed with some black, cover the male's neck, upper breast and sides. The rest of his body, in the summer, is mostly white. His tail is dark brown. The female is about the same color, but paler, and there is more white on her head.

Most people in the United States never get to see the changeable birds, because they stay so far north all year. The National Wildlife Federation says that willow ptarmigan make their summer homes from Greenland to Alaska. In the winter they come down to central and southern Canada and only a few of them venture into the northern fringes of our country.

So hardy are the willow ptarmigan that they build their nests on the bare ground of tthe treeless Arctic plains. In a hollow lined with a few feathers, leaves or bits of grass, the female lays from six to fifteen large eggs. The eggs are a deep reddish-brown color, with splotches of purple-brown.

After the female keeps them warm for 26 days, the eggs hatch some time in July. Both before and after the young birds appear, the male stays near to protect his home again fur-bearing animals and birds of prey.

Getting food for the nesting family is another problem for the parents themselves are big and the young have hearty appetites. In the summer, while they are still in the far north, they eat the leaves of bushes and trees, together with some insects now and then. For winter meals, they like berries and the tips of tender twigs.

Though the some times have trouble in finding enough food, willow ptarmigan grow to be large birds—measuring 17 inches from bill to tail. They are plump, too, and this is much to the likink of the Eskimos, who make many a meal of ptarmigan.

S. P. ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR 2400 NEW FREIGHT CARS

Construction of 2004 new freight cars of various types has just been authorized by Southern Pacific as an initial step in the railroad's 1953 freight car acquisition program.

In making this announcement, President D. J. Russell said that construction of the new cars will be progressed as rapidly as possible to continue an ample supply of equipment to meet the needs of national defense and expanding industrial traffic in the railroad's territory. The cars may be built in the company's own shops at Sacramento and Algiers, La., he said.

Of the new cars, 1000 will be 70-flat cars, 53½ feet long, a type desired by lumber shippers and receivers; 450 all-steel, hopper bottom gondolas; 350 tight bottom gondolas; 4 heavy duty special type flat cars of 200 ton and 125 ton capacity; 100 special type 50-ton pulpwood flat cars with end-tracks; and 100 special type 70-ton gondolas for sulphur service. The latter 200 cars are assigned on the company's lines in Texas and Louisiana.

President Russell pointed out that since the end of the war, Southern Pacific has placed 31,156 freight cars in service and that 4,744 additional freight cars remain to be delivered on orders placed last year.

In additon, the Pacific Fruit Express Company, in which SP is half owner, has added 10,075 new refrigerator cars to its fleet of equipment since end of the war and 25 extra large 70-ton refrigerator cars are on order for delivery next year.

OFFICER APPEALING DISMISSAL FROM C. H. P. AT TAHOE

Louis B. Tyler, California State Highway patrolman stationed at the south end of Lane Tahoe for over ten years, has asked for a formal hearing on charges of using state cars to transport friends, of using state-purchased gasoline for personal purposes and for being intoxicated on duty. The charges were the basis for his dismissal from the patrol August 21 by Patrol Captain Earl Personius of Placerville.

Tyler was charged with transporting two women around the northern part of the state several times from 1950 to February this yer. Another count states he drove a state car 1100 miles and charged 100 gallons of gasoline on a state credit card while engaged in a Christmas tree cutting venture at Kyburz. On one occasion, it was charged, he was found "intoxicated on duty.

No date has been set for hearing Tyler's appeal before the state personnel board.

Youth Leader Speaker At Rotary Meet

Tahoe City Rotary Club members, at their August 26 meeting, heard Bishop Tom Turball of the Episcopal Church discuss his work in youth service.

The bishop is the father of charge of around 50 boys and girls three children and has been in camping at Lake Tahoe. He is assisted in this work by a faculty of five. Next summer, he predicts, there will be a considerable increase in the number of youngsters enrolled. Rev. Turnball is a Rotarian at Redding.

Guests again outnumbered the club members and President Denis Sach was in charge of the meeting.

BEAR HUNT OPENS SOON IN AREA; RULES ARE LISTED

Bear hunters will find ranch gates on the latch, as well as the "welcome" mats out, in northern Mendocino and Humboldt Counties this year because of bruin's depredations against trees and livestock, the state department of fish and game reports.

Stockmen in the two counties are anxious to see a maximum bear kill this season because, they believe, bruin's bark chewing activities kill precious redwood trees and they also charge bears with predator attacks on sheep and cattle.

The coastal bear hunting season is now on and the balance of the state opens September 20. Both seasons run concurrently until December 31. Hunters should get permission from landowners before trespassing.

Bab limit is two bears per season and they may be taken with firearms or bow and arrow only, until the trapping season begins November 16. Hunting hours are a half-hour before sunrise to a half hours after sunset except between November 22 and December 1, when the northern counties will shoot from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Fine Fishing Leads To Fishing Fines

Eleven San Joaquin County residents "meat fishing" for trout at Highland Lake in Alpine County recently paid fines of $50 each after they had taken a total of 437 fish—just 272 over the party's total legal limit.

The busy anglers were trailed for four days by state game wardens who made their arrests just as the party of 11 were breaking camp and preparing to take home their haul, snow-packed in four pickup trucks.

The 11 tried and fined by Judge John Love of Woodford, Alpine County, were Jerry Titus, George Koster, Leslie V. Koster, R. R. Strobel, LeRoy Daniels, Clarence Strobel, Harold Smith, E. Donald Marks, Billy J. Rabon, Elton A. Dietrich, all of Stockton, and John Brierley of Manteca.

They were cited by state department of fish and game patrol captain Glenn Whitesell and wardens Al Doreo, Art Brown and Lem Garrett.

National Primary Election Strongly Backed In State

by CLEM WHITAKER JR.

In the campaign lull following the national nominating conventions held by the Republican Party and Democratic Party at Chicago in July, and preceding Labor Day (traditionally the date when the opening guns are fired in presidential election years) almost as much talk of a National Primary Election System was being heard on Main Streets as of Eisenhower and Stevenson.

Polls have been taken in California and elsewhere on the subject of a National Presidential Primary Election. The polls show that the public didn't like what it saw on TV of either national convention and the idea of a National Primary has strong appeal.

Here in California, the proportion of people favoring a National Primary is said to be about 70%.

In California, too, the Young Republicans are on record in favor of a National Primary. The Republican State Convention went on record as favoring a study of a National Primary. And the Democratic Party has indicated its interest in the system.

Many political observers, however, aren't so sure that the Nation would be well served by selecting presidential candidates by a nationwide primary instead of through political conventions.

A National Primary, the experts readily admit, has great merit. The following points are listed in its favor:

1. The public, for the first time, would have a direct choice in respect to candidates.

2. The convention wheeling and dealing so apparent on TV would be eliminated; the influence of political bosses, as wielded at the conventions, would be removed.

Bad features of a Presidential Primary system are listed in this manner:

1. A National Primary would make campaigns for the presidency fantastically expensive and tend to narrow a field of candidates to those able to muster millions in campaign funds.

2. The majority party in Congress at the time the system should be adopted would be in the unique position of writing the ground rules for the National Primary under which the minority party would have to operate.

3. Deals would be made for support by political bosses just as in conventions, only in the case of a national primary the horsetrading would involve support of the political machinery in a given state for a particular candidate in return for future favors.

In short, while a National Presidential Primary Election eventually may prove preferable to the present convention system, a number of political observers are of the opinion that it is no cure-all for the abuses apparent in the convention system.

Good politics, good government, regardless of the presidential nominating system, under any circumstances apparently still depend to a large extent on the degree of voter interest in politics and government.

PINELAND CONCERT BOOSTS FUND FOR LAKE AMBULANCE

TAHOE CITY— The concert given by residents of Pineland at the Pineland Bowl on Sunday evening was well attended and highly enjoyed. In charge of the evening's program were Charles Beardsley, Pineland realtor; his wife, who is the group's piano accompanist; Mrs. Frances Carlson and Mrs. Bert Anderson.

The concert was given as a benefit to the Tahoe City ambulance fund, which has become depleted. During the evening Howard Guth served as auctioneer in selling some tasty Swedish dishes from the Swedish Farm House in Tahoe City, a total of $57 being raised for the cause.

The program included songs by Denis Sach, Mrs. Carlson and Lida Hahn of Oakland and folk dancing by the Tahoe Twirlers of Kings Beach, who were supervised by Mrs. Stephen Port. Exhibition numbers were also staged by Mr. and Mrs. R. Parsons of Yuba City.

A huge bonfire was built to ward off mosquitos and Clarence Beavers of the William Kent Campground entertained with movies.

SWANEE'S Tahoe Letter

Tahoe City, Sept. 1

Dear Tahoeites:

The lake swarms with cars from all over the nation, and various other parts of the world, with machines moving at times bumper to bumper as they enjoy the last three big summer holidays. So far we have been fortunate, for up to tonight only a few very minor accidents have occurred and no casualties. Here's hoping the record remains unbroken through tomorrow. The weather has been beautiful and according to local reports, all resorts and businesses have had record-breaking success.

Since Tahoe Tavern is closing for the season tomorrow morning, Bud Scott is using the Homewood Hotel for the rest of the season as headquarters for the cruiser Tahoe which has been kept on the go almost constantly. C. Don Huff is one resort owner who remains open longer than most to accommodate guests who enjoy the lake in its autumn dress—most colorful season of the year here.

Cary Raymond, secretary-manager of the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Chamber of Commerce, informs us that interested property owners may secure a copy of the preliminary report of the Lake Tahoe Interstate Water Conference Committee which is free of charge, if they will call at the Tahoe City office some time between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. Mondays through Fridays. A limited number are on hand and the chamber is distributing them.

Learned today through a chance meeting with Fred Kilner that the Everett Prussos of San Leandro are up for a week's vacation at their summer home on the lakeshore at Carnelian Bay. Was surprised to see a "For Sale" sign on their property a week or two ago. Always thought they would never forsake Tahoe, but life has a way of changing the best laid plans of mice and men.

Msr. Ruth Droste of Tahoe City had a most unpleasant experience recently when she went for a swim and sunbath with friends on the beach at Tahoe Commons. She was in the midst of conversation when she felt a tickling sensation on her hand and reached down to scratch. At that moment, a yellow jacket stung her and she sat down dazed. Within five minutes she had lost consciousness and Elsie Young, who accompanied her, hastily summoned Dr. C. B. Pedersen of Tahoe Tavern. He brought her back to consciousness but for a period of a couple of hours or so she was violently nauseated from the effects of the inseet poisoning. She suffered no further discomfort. Perhaps a word of warning would not be amiss to those who might suffer a similar fate, and calling a doctor promptly might prevent serious consequences.

Services in the Episcopal Outdoor Chapel near Tahoe Tavern will terminate for the season following next Sunday's devotions at which Herman Rauh, son-in-law of Bishop and Mrs. Noel Porter and a lay reader, will deliver the sermon prepared by the bishop to be read at the final gathering of the season. The good bishop and his wife left the first of the week for Boston where they are attending a church convention. They will return to Sacramento for the winter after closing their lakeshore home near the chapel.

Last Saturday was the last time the post office here will remain open on Saturday afternoon until July and August next year.

Nip Scott returned to the home of his parents, the Bud Scotts, on Sunday after having enjoyed a month's vacation with relatives in southern California.

Am indebted to Diana Warner for information recently sent in a letter to her and Charlie from Dover where the Ray Lewis family has been residing ever since leaving Tahoe a few weeks ago. Seems all are well and they have added another adorable little daughter to their clan, Jan Catherine, born February 4. Lewis was art instructor in the Truckee and Tahoe schools and his wife was active in civic and social affairs of the community. They wrote in hibh spirits informing the Warners that they were again moving back to California—to San Francisco to be exact—where Ray plans to set up his own gallery to handle original prints and drawings. The two oldest girls are already out west, having flown out with their dad in July, and come the first of September, today that is, they leave with the new baby and Poo, their pet dog, for California. An overnight stop is planned at Tahoe and they hope at that time to greet a lot of their many friends in the region. They sent very best regards to all of them in the Truckee and Tahoe area and hope to see them soon. Incidentally, the Warner's new little son is making excellent progress, weighs 15 pounds and five ounces already and was just three months old on the 29th.

Ring off for the week with a cheery adios to one and all, as ever, Swanee.

ROTARY SPEAKER THANKFUL TO RETURN TO U. S.

TAHOE CITY— On Tuesday at Homewood Resort, members of the Tahoe City Rotary Club and their guests were verbally taken behind the "Iron Curtain" by Mrs. Josephine Marston of Oakland. She left in June via plane to Ireland, Belgium, Germany and then to her former home in Czechoslovakia—a 16,000 mile trip—with her 11 year old son.

On arriving at the Prague airport, there were 26 different national flags, but none of the United States. In fact, Americans are not welcome and all look at them on unfriendly bases, Mrs. Marston said. All Americans enter at their own risk and can expect little or no protection from their own government. Every 24 hours she had to report and show her passports, etc., to the police.

In Prague, streets were deserted and no one stopped to visit. Ration books were given and in two days she used up her 10 day supply. Most people appear undernourished and doctors could not believe her son was only 11—since he was as larger as most 15 and 16 year olds.

All big business has been taken over by the government and all stores close for six weeks at a time, while employees go off to work in the mines and fields. All the better stock has been taken from the farms and sent to Russia.

All the time she was there, she had the fear of saying the wrong thing and it was a wonderful relief when she arrived back in the U. S., realizing what Freedom really means.

President Denis Sach presided at the luncheon.

COMPLETE 75-MILE HIKING TRIP THROUGH SIERRA

The seven-day hiking expedition for Explorers of the Tahoe Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, was completed Sunday, August 31, with 11 Explorers led by Field Executive Del Raby taking the 75 miles cross-country trek through the Sierra Nevada.

The trip started Sunday, August 24, from Camp Pahatsi near Soda Springs, ending at Sierra City after seven days on the trail. The Explorers were returned to their homes by automobile Sunday. The 75-mile hiking expedition included beside their daily travel, side trips to explore lakes, canyons and mountain peaks. The hike was climaxed Saturday by a 20-mile hike to the lakes in the vicinity of Sierra City and to the top of the Sierra Buttes.

The Explorers carried on their backs all of their equipment, food and personal items, making the average pack about 40 pounds at the start.

During the week, many projects for Explorer ratings and merit badges were completed toward advancement in Scouting.

The Explorers were guests of Scouts of Troop 34, Downieville, Saturday at the completion of the hike. Troop 34 had a hot meal, including luxuries that the young men were unable to carry with them on the trail.

Explorers who went on the hiking expedition were Clyde and Richard Mandeville, Kings Beach; Ed Payne, Grass Valley; George Kieran Grant and Ian Grant, Forest Hill; Stanley Forbes, Auburn; James Griffis, Eddie Herbst and Leonard Lindauer, Roseville; Lloyd Holm and Thomas Price, Grass Valley, and Raby.

F. B. I. Chief Stresses Responsibility; Analyzes Cause Of Moral Corruption

by J. Edgar Hoover, Director,
Federal Bureau of Investigation

I THINK the time has come for some straight thinking on the subject of responsibility. All too frequently in the past few years, there has been too much "buck passing" to the Federal Government.

The experience of people in other lands who suddenly found themselves living in a totalitarian state discloses that always the trend started with people in local communities being unable or unwilling to take care of local situations.

I hope that day never comes to America, as our way of life is too precious to be supplanted by either a Socialist, Fascist, or Communist form of government.

THE EVILS of gang wars, gambling, vice, political corruption, and organized crime can be eliminated from the American scene. The fundamental solution lies in aroused and awakened citizens, militantly demanding the action which will eliminate the gambling czar, the crook, the venal politician.

Local citizens must unite in surveying their communities to see that their law enforcement agencies have the manpower, the technical facilities, and the will to combat the criminal menace. Vigorous enforcement of local laws will eliminate gambling in those communities where gambling has been outlawed by statute. This is the solution to the problem.

THE EXTENT of organized crime in the United States is a national disgrace. The very fact that we have a crime problem reflects an evil of even greater import. The American home too often does not occupy the place in our national life that it did at the turn of the century.

We are in a state of moral depression. The breakdown of the home is both a cause and a result.

THE BAD STATE of affairs in too many of our schools is another result. In many instances any semblance of religious training is barred and the mentioning of God is frowned upon while espousers of godless communism carry on under the guise of academic freedom.

J. EDGAR HOOVER

No nation ever won a war unless its people were united and dedicated to the common cause. We can never have a crime-free America until all who stand for law and order are united and determined to mobilize against those who constitute our army of lawlessness.

ONLY A RETURN to the fundamentals upon which this Nation was founded—a moral reawakening — a revitalized spirit and a rededication of service to our fellow man—can make this a reality.

TAX RATE FIXED BY TAHOE GROUP

TAHOE CITY— Directors of the Tahoe City Public Utility District last Saturday passed a resolution and ordinance setting a tax rate of $1 on each $100 of assessed valuation of the district.

C. W. Vernon, manager of the board, said the tax voted will pay the fraction of the year's interest due on bonds to be sold next spring and allow money for some of the incidental costs until funds are received from the sale of the bonds.

He said the district has depleted its water works sinking fund of nearly $7,000 in paying engineer, attorney and printing costs. These costs, Vernon said, are a part of the $126,000 estimated cost of the sewer system and should be returned to the water department when the bonds are sold. The directors have decided against asking for bids until next spring.

18,000,000 Trout Taken In State During 1951

More than 18 million trout were caught by nearly half-a-million anglers during 1951, according to the year's catch reports, recently completed by the state department of fish and game tabulators.

Trout and striped bass fishing have maintained a stable ratio between anglers and their bag in recent years, the figures show. An estimated 144,000 fishermen caught 1,490,000 stripers during 1951. In 1951, 79,000 anglers caught an estimated 564,000 salmon.

They're from Missouri—

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Towler and sons returned yesterday from a trip to Missouri and other eastern points.

LOCAL ROAD WORK IS GIVEN APPROVAL

County Road Commissioner J. F. O'Connor of Nevada City was in Truckee last week to make a survey of the local road situation.

Among other projects approved by the commissioner was rebuilding of West River Street, damaged by last winter's storms, a regrading of the approaches to the new Truckee River bridge and other minor repairs, as well as resurfacing the Brockway cutoff.

O'Connor also inspected the streets in Gateway Park Subdivision No. 2 and made suggestions to owner Richard Joseph for bringing them up to standard for acceptance into the county system.

While here, O'Connor conferred with H. G. Loehr, chairman of the board of supervisors, who will direct the local work.
